Resolutions of Anti-Saloon League to Come Before Presbyterian Assembly Today.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS

LARGE SUM NEEDED FOR EDU-CATIONAL PURPOSES.

Columbus, O., May 21.-The Presbyterian general assembly today received and adopted a number of reports, in- FIRST WITNESS cluding those of the board of home missions and the board of education. The assembly also adopted a resolution declaring that $1,100,000 is the least sum which the churches can be asked to give to enable the board properly to carry its work through the coming year.

An interesting feature of the afternoon what papers he read, Smith declared:

an interesting feature of the afternoon session was the presentation to the assembly of Rev. W. R. Evans, moderator of the Welsh Presbyterian church, who announced that a movement had been started in that body looking to a union with the parent church. The announcement was received with annianse. ouncement was received with applause.

Temperance Question.

Developments in the temperance controversy aroused by the antagonism of the Anti-Saloon league to the Interthe Anti-Saloon league to the Inter-Church Temperance federation came rapidly today. The standing committee on temperance referred all the overtures affecting the attitude of the church toward the league to the committee on polity, which decided to recommend that no minister of the Presbyterian church, as such, could be an officer or member of the Anti-Saloon league; that they could participate in the work of that organization only as individuals. At the same time the standing committee on same time the standing committee on temperance received and adopted a rescolution asking the standing committee to define the duties of the permanent committee on temperance which represents the church in the Inter-Church federapermanent committee on temperance.

Anti-Saloon League.

The supporters of the Anti-Saloon league are endeavoring to have the work of this committee confined to promoting temperance along educational and sci-entific lines, leaving the political field entirely to the Anti-Saloon league. The standing committee today heard : number of persons, including represen-tatives of the Anti-Saloon league, on the subject, and has prepared a rough draft of resolutions which will be further considered tomorrow and will be presented to the assembly in the afternoon, for which time the report has been made a special order.

Mr. Parsons' Suggestion.

Arthur Parsons, president of the Utah state board of arbitration, saw General Manager Murray yesterday. Afterwards he saw Mr. Lynn and the executive com-mittee. To the latter he stated that he had just been in conference with Mr. Murray and that he was desirous of oringing about a settlement of the dif-ficulty, if that were possible. "I told Mr. Parsons," said Mr. Lynn,

"that we were greatly pleased with the interest he took in the matter, and that we were extremely sorry that he had not become acquainted, through the daily press or otherwise, of the conditions that existed, so that he might have come in as mediator before. Mr. Parsons said that if the state board could not do anythat if the state board could not do anything in the matter he and a number of other gentlemen would be glad to do whatever they could. We told Mr. Parsons that we would be glad to accept arbitration of any differences that might now exist between ourselves and the companies or might hereafter arise, if the companies granted us $4.50 for cable splice ers, $3.75 for linemen and $3.25 for installers, etc. Mr. Parsons asked for my address and I gave it to him; in turn, he gave me his card. We are glad to see a movement on the part of the general public to bring about an adjustment; we helicate the movements: we helicate the second state of the general public to bring about an adjustment; we helicate the second state of the general public to bring about an adjustment; we helicate the second state of the general public to bring about an adjustment; we helicate the second state of the general public to bring about an adjustment.

The simple proposition with us is that we feel that we cannot afford to pay the increased wages—that's all."

Some Street Talk. It is currently rumored on the streets that at next Friday's special meeting of the Utah Federation of Labor strong resolutions will be passed indersing the telephone men's strike, and that other resolutions will be strike, and that other resolutions will be strike. ephone men's strike and that other resolutions will be passed calling upon every union man to urge every fair house to send in a take-out order. Whether this will be done or not cannot at this time be stated with accuracy, but that seems to be the impression. As there are a great number of fair houses in Salt Lake City, it is claimed by the men that the take-out orders will be numerous.
